Hello,

If you have received this memo directly from BTF management, then you have been chosen to be a part of a documentary that will concentrate on the history of gospel music in the English-speaking regions within the West Indies.

If you are interested in being a part of this historical music ministry project, please respond to us via email behindthefabRICTV@gmail.com with your full name as it is shown on your government identification along with your WhatsApp number (that you may be contacted to coordinate film schedule). Once we received your response, we will email an e-sign agreement through smallpdf. Since we are not using a notary to verify your identity in person, we will need a photo of your government identification of your choice. Be mindful to include your government identification number in the e-sign guest agreement, near your signature. Please understand, although we want you to be involved in this documentary, there will be no modification of our guest agreement.

A film schedule will be created upon receipt of your individual e-sign agreement. We will also need the following items: professional head shot photo, and your biography. We are aiming to start filming in the USA in July and overseas in August of 2023. Our film crew will be traveling to various islands within the Caribbean to interview gospel music veterans and historians.

In time, Behind The Fabric will be a household name in journalism for inspirational TV production throughout the Caribbean.

As it relates to journalism, there are no compensation for being a source (a person featured in a documentary), but we will take into consideration any hardships, in reference to travel accommodations. As a film production we associate payment with actors, and people in documentary are not actors. A documentary is a preservation of history, by way of using witnesses and experts who are well versed in the subject matter. Therefore, it is unethical to pay a source or participant for sharing history.

We look forward to hearing from you in a timely manner. We would like to thank you for considering being apart of our music ministry documentary, and may God bless you and yours.

Sincerely,

BTF CEO / Film Producer

BTF Film Director
